

STUDENT LEADERSHIP TRAINING

COURSE OVERVIEW/BENEFITS

Developing public speaking and presentation skills which are vital when working with colleagues, clients and higher management. SMEAC is an essential tool in creating effective and confident managers and presenters.

Designed to impart skills that will improve confidence and cohesion within a team. It will reinforce the system of company values while educating team members in some practical safety and survival skills relevant to their employment.

This course uses the SMEAC model to provide participants with a structured process of breaking up a problem, and within a minimal time, structure a plan which is ready to be implemented or presented.

SMEAC is a model used by the Australian Military when writing and giving orders for a mission. It is taught to junior leaders as an effective tool to be used when managing troops through tasks.

ZeroRisk draws upon former Special Forces Operatives and has a wealth of experience in dynamic high pressure situations.
